2025 LEGISLATIVE SUMMIT

WASHINGTON, D.C.
March 24–26, 2025

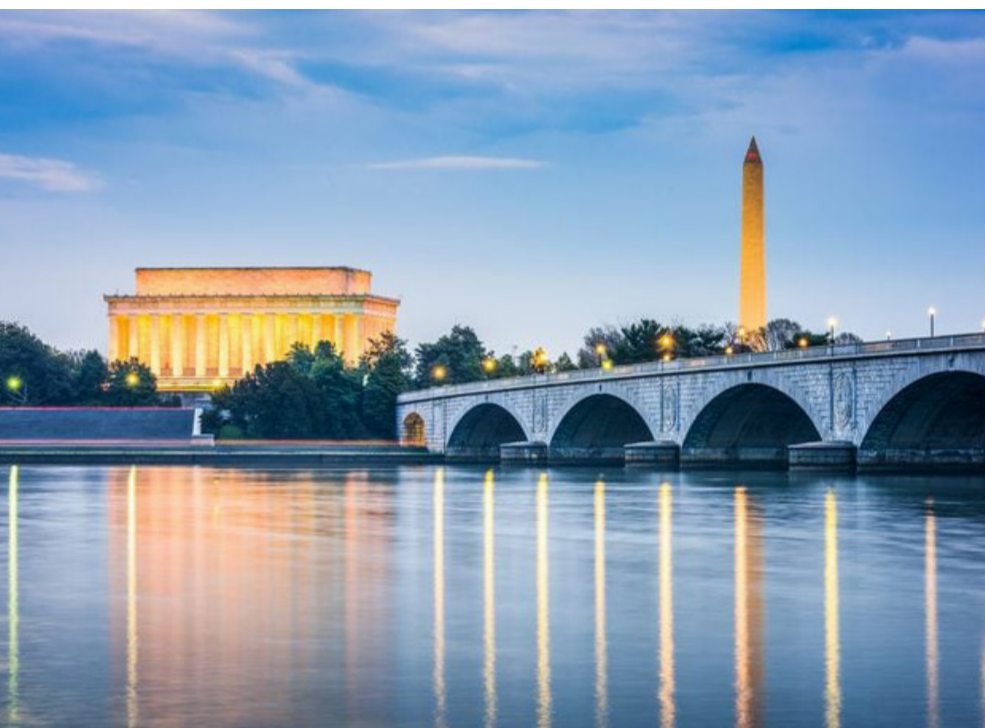

JOIN THE USHCC AT THE 2025 LEGISLATIVE SUMMIT IN WASHINGTON, D.C. ON MARCH 24–26 TO ADDRESS POLICIES THAT STRENGTHEN HISPANIC-OWNED BUSINESSES AND ENHANCE THEIR ROLE IN A RAPIDLY CHANGING ECONOMY.

This essential gathering brings together national Hispanic chamber leaders from across the country, alongside business, government, and industry representatives. Attendees will engage with top policymakers, corporate partners, and fellow entrepreneurs to tackle critical challenges and unlock new opportunities that empower Hispanic businesses nationwide.

With over five million Hispanic-owned businesses contributing a substantial $3.6 trillion annually to the U.S. economy, the USHCC is dedicated to promoting their growth as a vital force in American prosperity. Our mission emphasizes expanding access to capital, fostering economic inclusion, and equipping Hispanic entrepreneurs to thrive in competitive markets. Through bipartisan collaboration, we work to shape policies that support small businesses, encourage economic equity, and fortify our nation's economic resilience.

THE 2025 BUSINESS POLICY AGENDA: CHARTING THE COURSE

This year's focus aims to address how evolving economic policies impact businesses and communities nationwide, emphasizing tax reform,

USHCC 2024 LEGISLATIVE SUMMIT EVENT

RECAP

The 2024 Legislative Summit brought together over 500 business leaders, chamber executives, and corporate partners, connecting Hispanic business leaders with government and elected officials in a bipartisan effort to shape the nation's legislative priorities. This impactful gathering provided a platform for ideas aimed at driving economic growth, expanding business opportunities, and advancing the country toward a more equitable and prosperous future.

A historic White House Briefing allowed key participants to engage directly with key government leaders, emphasizing economic equity and critical support for small business growth. The Summit also featured panels on international trade, access to capital, and supply chain diversity, with insights from leaders across government, Hispanic chambers, and corporate America.

Last year's Legislative Summit culminated in the presentation of the USHCC's 2024 Policy Platform, outlining key policy priorities for the year. The event reinforced the USHCC's commitment to fostering economic inclusion, empowering Hispanic businesses to scale, and advocating for policies that drive prosperity in an interconnected global economy.

trade agreements, and the need for inclusive growth. Key discussions will cover potential changes to the 2017 tax cuts, anticipated updates to the U.S.-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA), and the Federal Reserve's role in steering monetary policy and interest rates that directly affect trade flows and business investment.

IN AN INTERCONNECTED ECONOMY, THE ROLE OF SMALL CONTRACTORS—AND PARTICULARLY HISPANIC-OWNED BUSINESSES—IN PROCUREMENT IS ESSENTIAL FOR GROWTH AND COMPETITIVENESS.

Expanding access to government and corporate contracts is critical for these businesses to participate fully in national and international supply chains. Centered on shaping Washington to work for everyone, this event will feature insights from leaders across the Federal Reserve, government, Hispanic chambers, and corporate America. It will equip participants with strategies to stay competitive and unlock growth opportunities in today's economy.

Join us in shaping the future, building solutions, and empowering Hispanic businesses to thrive across the U.S. and beyond.

Please note: Focus areas may adapt to address additional priorities as new challenges and opportunities emerge for Hispanic businesses.

2025 USHCC ENERGY SUMMIT

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO
April 29–May 1, 2025

JOIN THE USHCC FOR THE FOURTH ANNUAL ENERGY SUMMIT IN HISTORIC SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO, ON APRIL 29–MAY 1, 2025.

The mission of the annual Energy Summit is to bring stakeholders from across the energy sector together to share knowledge of relevant energy issues and to ensure the role of Hispanic business enterprises within the industry.

This pivotal event brings together Hispanic business leaders, energy stakeholders, and policymakers to explore strategies for growth and integration across conventional and next-generation energy sectors, positioning Hispanic-owned businesses as essential contributors to a stable and innovative energy landscape.

As energy initiatives accelerate nationwide, the summit will emphasize the impact of Hispanic-owned businesses in shaping a resilient energy future. States like New Mexico, Texas, California, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and New York are leading efforts in both traditional and clean energy, and this summit aims to strengthen partnerships across the energy spectrum—including the pivotal role of utilities—in building a thriving dual-sector economy.

THE ECONOMIC IMPERATIVE OF ENGAGING HISPANIC-OWNED AND SMALL BUSINESSES IS INCREASINGLY CLEAR AS CORPORATIONS AND ORGANIZATIONS EXPAND THEIR SUPPLIER NETWORKS.

These businesses drive economic growth, foster competitiveness, and bring critical innovation to the energy industry, helping to meet demand and secure energy resilience in rapidly evolving markets. We will delve into Cultivating the Future of Energy Suppliers, exploring how Hispanic and small businesses can thrive in this evolving sector.

USHCC 2024 ENERGY SUMMIT

RECAP

The 2024 USHCC Energy Summit brought together industry leaders and policymakers to shape the future of energy. It began with a Welcome Reception at the New Mexico Governor's Mansion, hosted by Toyota and Chevron, fostering connections and setting a collaborative tone.

The Summit opened with Chevron's Maru Suarez Williams highlighting energy security, followed by a fireside chat on the Toyota-Chevron alliance with Tom Stricker of Toyota North America and Claudia Graham of Chevron. Later, Avangrid CEO Pedro Azagra delivered a keynote, and fireside chats featured Shell USA President Gretchen Watkins on the energy transition, moderated by Alma Del Toro, and JPMorgan Chase's Ben Ratner on emissions, moderated by Allison Kajs Weinberg.

The day concluded with roundtables on the Justice40 Initiative and partnerships, and the graduation of USHCC Avanzando Suppliers with Blue Wave, celebrating Hispanic-owned businesses leading in energy. The summit inspired a powerful vision for an inclusive, resilient energy future.

GAIN INSIGHTS INTO SECURING PROCUREMENT OPPORTUNITIES, NAVIGATING CHALLENGES, AND BUILDING EFFECTIVE PARTNERSHIPS, WITH ACTIONABLE STRATEGIES TO POSITION THEIR BUSINESSES FOR SUCCESS.

Guided by national priorities, the 2025 Energy Summit will present a unified vision for a resilient energy landscape that includes Hispanic-owned enterprises at every level—from established roles to emerging technologies. Through focused discussions and networking, the summit will showcase how these businesses fuel innovation and community development, ensuring they are at the forefront of the advancing energy ecosystem.

Join us in Santa Fe to connect, collaborate, and help shape an inclusive energy future that reflects the diversity, resilience, and strength of communities across the U.S.

Please note: Focus areas may adapt to address additional priorities as new challenges and opportunities emerge for Hispanic businesses.
